

Do you want to become a member of VIAVAR?

Do you want to make a difference for the social life at VIA? Below you can read more the process of working in VIAVAR and how you apply to be a member.

Become a part of VIAVAR – VIAs study social union. VIAVAR is focused on promoting study social commitment by donating grants to the campus local unions' events and initiatives, and in time also by involving the local unions in the configuration and design of events.

Such is the partnership

Your participation in VIAVAR is voluntary. This accounts to the three yearly meetings. As a volunteer in VIAVAR, you bring joy and happiness to VIAs students. The things that you contribute to will be much appreciated. You help to make things possible and to make the social life at VIA cultivate.

Additionally, you have the opportunity, for which there is payment, to contribute to VIAVARs other tasks within the areas of consultancy, guidance, design and facilitation of events, and practical assistance with the execution.

This is what you contribute with (as a volunteer)

- Active participation in VIAVARs three yearly meetings with a duration of approximately 3 hours
- Allocate funds based on incoming applications in accordance with the articles of association and the guidelines
- Actively seek information about upcoming local events and social initiatives
- Brainstorm VIA side events

This is what you can contribute with (paid)

- Consult and guide the initiation of social events and initiatives
- Practical help for setting up and executing events
- Define and describe VIA wide events

- Facilitate a tender procedures of VIA wide events on any campus.

This is what you gain

- A social and professional network
- Tasks and responsibilities that strengthen your CV
- The possibility to make an active difference for the study social environment at your campus and for all of VIA
- Participation in engaging social events together with the other VIAVAR members – for free!
- The opportunity for paid work
